EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Steven W. Smith, reg. no. 36,684 on January 27, 2005.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

a. Replace claim 18 to read as of the following:

In Claim 18,

18. (Currently Amended) A method of distributing IP-addresses from a global processor in a General Packet Radio Service (GPRS) network to a plurality of application processors in associated external networks connected to the GPRS network, wherein each of the application processors provides IP-addresses to users in the application processor's associated external network, said method comprising the steps of:

storing a global pool of available IP-addresses in the global processor in the GPRS network;

receiving a request for an additional IP-address from a given application processor;

determining how many IP-addresses to send to the given application processor in a block of IP-addresses based on the given application processor's rate of ~~usage of IP-~~ addresses requests for additional IP-addresses from users, the rate of usage of IP-addresses of other application processors, and the number of available IP-addresses in the global pool, said block also being dynamically sized to minimize the amount of traffic required for the plurality of application processors to request IP-addresses from the global processor and for the global processor to distribute IP-addresses to the application processors; and transferring the block of IP-addresses from the global pool to the given application processor in response to the request for an additional IP-address from the given application processor.

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Philip C. Lee whose telephone number is (571) 272-3967.
